

CLONARD WATERPOLO CLUB

Code of Conduct – Senior Player {2021-2022}

Players should always:

- Treat sports leaders who may be teachers, coaches, club officials or parents with respect.
- Play fairly at all times, do their best.
- Respect team members, even when things go wrong.
- Respect opponents, be gracious in defeat.
- Abide by the rules set down by Swim Ireland, I.W.P.A. and their Club.
- Talk to the Coach, Team Captain, Club Children's Officer or Committee Member if they have any problems.

Players should never:

- Cheat.
- Use violence or take part in dangerous play.
- Use physical contact that is not allowed within the rules.
- Shout or argue with officials, team mates or opponents.
- Harm team members, opponents or their property.
- Bully or use bullying tactics to isolate another person.
- Use unfair or bullying tactics to gain competitive advantage.
- Use bad or offensive language.
- Take banned substances (E.g. drugs)
- Keep secrets about any person who may have caused them harm.
- Tell lies about adults/young people/children.
- Spread rumours.
- Behave in a manner that might bring their Club, the I.W.P.A. or Swim Ireland into disrepute (give the Club or sport a bad name).

The above rules apply equally to electronic communication e.g. social media sites.

I understand that waterpolo is a full contact sport and that from time to time injuries may occur, during matches or training. I understand that the I.W.P.A. disciplinary code covers all waterpolo events and venues. I have read and agree to abide by the above Code of Conduct.
